VANISHED (OYAYUBI SAGASHI)
(1 hour and 36 minutes)

Years ago, 'Oyayubi-Sagashi' game used to be popular, which means 'finding a thumb' game.

People sit in a circle, holding next one's thumb with eyes shut. Then they see an image in their mind, but if they open their eyes and turn around, they will suddenly disappear from the Earth.

This movie was scary and horrible but I would like to watch it again. My favourite scene was when they are standing in a circle, holding hands and they say "Do not turn around", but then one boy turns around!
